

Zakhar's Toe Saves St. Peter's Win

Cochrane Praises Snyder Duma's Passes Surprise Prep

By CAS RAKOWSKI

"Don't take anything away from Snyder . . . give them full credit for playing an outstanding game."

Bill Cochrane, who has undergone the coaching pressures of more than 150 football games, was a tired man in the Prep dressing room following his team's 21-19 win over underdog Snyder before 4,500 fans Saturday afternoon at Roosevelt Stadium. Yet the dean of Hudson County coaches found time to praise Snyder's overall performance on the field.

"WE WERE PLEASED with our showing," Cochrane said. "Snyder was just that good. Their passing game really surprised us. We had them scouted through the first two

Statistics

	Snyder	St. Peter's
First Downs	7	14
Rushing yardage	100	207
Passing yardage	181	11
Passes	5-10	2-7
Passes intercepted by	0	0
Punts	3-82	1-35
Fumbles lost	0	3
Yards penalized	4-30	2-10

games and they threw very little. Their end (Ted Zahorbenski) worked the pass patterns beautifully."

Over in the Snyder dressing room the scene was quite different. There were red-watery eyes and emotional outbursts. This was a Snyder team that wasn't rated a chance of upsetting St. Peter's.

Not since 1946 had Snyder scored more than two touchdowns against Prep. But these gritty youngsters of Earl Byrd went over the goal line three times and were well on their way to a fourth when they rattled on the Prep 20 in the final minute of play.

—0—

Still it was the timely toe of Bob Zakhar which enabled St. Peter's to break Snyder's modest two game winning streak. Zakhar's prolific toe was true to the mark three times while Snyder was able to convert only once after its touchdowns.

The score:

Snyder	0	13	6	0-19
St. Peter's	0	7	14	0-21

St. Peter's—Mendolla, 33 yard run; Zakhar placement.

Snyder—Kelly, 4 yard run; Spadafino run failed.

Snyder—Zahorbenski, 65 yrd pass from Duma; Richardson run

St. Peter's—Harding, 50 yard kickoff return; Zakhar placement.

Snyder—Zahorbenski, 55 yard pass from Duma; Richardson run failed.

St. Peter's—Mendolla, 3 yard run; Zakhar placement.