Kennedy's Labor Secretary Helps End Walkout

A two-week harbor barge crew strike that shut down the entire New York Central Railroad and cut rail service for 100,000 commuters ended today with a settlement reached under pressure from the Kennedy administration.

The accord was reached at a 14-hour session guided by Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg, who intervened yesterday at the request of a concerned President Kennedy.

"No agreement won't go into effect until it is ratified by the members of all three unions involved," Kennedy said.

Goldberg said the president of the Seafarers Union, Paul Hall, has arranged for a meeting of all three unions in Brooklyn today.

"We are confident of ratification and operations (railroad) will be resumed promptly," he said.

The Central Railroad of New Jersey resumes operating its four ferries across the Hudson River at 4 p.m. today, a spokesman said. The ferries operate.

Tony Goes To Work

LONDON (UPI) — Tony kisses Princess Margaret goodbye today and goes off to work.

But unlike the millions of other Londoners, Anthony Armstrong-Jones is working for nothing.

This fact had the making of a national controversy as the ex-photographer reports for work at the Council of Industrial Design.

Despite the general relief that Tony was ending nine months of unemployment since marrying Margaret last May, there was a rising clamor he should get paid — stand on his own feet financially like any self-respecting husband.

A Clarence House announcement said he would take no money "for the present" in his job as adviser on the council's visual displays.

Kennedy Confers On Security

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy gave top priority today to national security affairs, arranging a day-long conference with his top defense and foreign policy advisers.

The White House meeting was expected to center on U.S.-Soviet relations.

Called to the conference were Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert B. McNamara and McGeorge Bundy, Kennedy's special assistant for national security affairs.

Prior to the top-level talks, the new President planned a 45-minute session with his White House staff. He held a similar meeting Saturday and apparently intends to make it a frequent practice.

Have Ambassador's Report.

Kennedy and his national security advisers have before them a report from Llewellyn Thompson, U.S. ambassador to Moscow, dealing with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's views on American-Russian relations.

Rusk and Undersecretary of State Chester Bowles conferred with Kennedy Sunday on Thompson's report, which may have included a Soviet proposal for an early Kennedy-Khrushchev meeting.

The ambassador's report was sent to Washington following a two-hour meeting he held in the Kremlin Saturday with Khrushchev at the Russian leader's request.

Kennedy's two and a half hour conference with Rusk and Bowles was the highlight of a busy Sunday for the new Chief Executive, who has been almost a study in perpetual motion since his inauguration Friday.
Kennedy Tops Hope

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy has proved he can hold his own in the fast league of after-dinner jokesters.

The President got a bigger laugh than Bob Hope Saturday night at the annual dinner of the Alfalfa Club, a Washington social organization of business and political leaders. Hope was toastmaster.

Kennedy was the honored guest at the affair where Clark Clifford, who served as his liaison man with the Eisenhower administration, was "nominated" for President of the United States.

Kennedy said he wanted to give Clifford some advice if he intended to try for the Presidency.

For example, he said, Clifford would have to accept criticism as he had been criticized for naming his brother, Robert F. Kennedy, as attorney general.

"I don't see what is wrong about giving him a little legal experience before he goes out and practices law," Kennedy quipped, and the crowd roared.

'Havena (UPI) — The end of the "Yankee invasion" scare permitted Premier Fidel Castro's regime to turn its attention today to education and farm problems and the continuing major rebel resistance in the Escambray Mountains of central Cuba.

The regime and the Cuban press adopted a wait-and-see policy toward the new Kennedy administration in regard to possible improvement of Cuban-U.S. relations. Castro made friendly overtures of the new President over the weekend, and called off the nationwide alert against a threatened U.S. "invasion" which the regime has said would come by Jan. 20.
JFK Visits Neighbors

She's Bathing the Baby When the President Calls

WASHINGTON (UPI) — For Mrs. Benjamin Bradlee it was just another Sunday morning — until in popped the President of the United States.

'OH, SHE SAID later, "we're used to him dropping by. But then he is the President now, isn't he?"

"I was upstairs bathing the baby. I was wearing my old clothes.

"I took the baby down and we (she, her husband, President Kennedy, brother Edward Kennedy and Paul Fay, newly named navy undersecretary) chatted for I guess five minutes.

"He said hello to the children. Then he said goodbye and left. That's about all there was to it.

"It was just an old friend stopping in — except that he just happens to be president."

What is the reaction of a housewife, doing routine chores in her around-home clothes, when such a distinguished caller appears unexpectedly?

MRS. BRADLEE is the attractive, blond wife of a magazine correspondent. The Bradlee home is two doors from the Georgetown residence Kennedy vacated to enter the White House, and the families have been close friends for several years.

The new President, who has a flair for doing the unexpected, visited the Bradlees on his way to church. He just walked up, opened the door and went in.

Presley Will Aid Arizona Fund

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (UPI) — Elvis Presley will appear March 25 in Bloch Arena, Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, to help raise money to enshrine the battleship Arizona.

The ship was sunk Dec. 7, 1941, when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor. The memorial is to the 1,102 men who died in the attack on the ship.

Construction of the $500,000 memorial is under way, but the building fund is $200,000 short.
As President-Elect
Abe Lincoln Stopped in J.C.
One Hundred Years Ago

TRENTON (UPI) — During seven hours on Thursday, Feb. 21, 1861, President-elect Abraham Lincoln passed through New Jersey receiving enthusiastic ovations along the route from Jersey City to Trenton.

To commemorate Lincoln and the anniversary of the Civil War which pitted brother against brother, New Jersey has established a state Civil War Centennial Commission.

— o —

THE COMMISSION is headed by Everett J. Landers, who with his staff maintains an office at the State House here to prepare various events in commemoration. The commission will remain active until 1965, 100 years from the end of the war.

Lincoln toured New Jersey in 1861 on his way to his inauguration. He made whistle stops at Jersey City, Newark, Elizabeth, Rahway, New Brunswick and Princeton before going to the State House.

There he was supposed to have given the first clue to his strong anti-secession stand.

“The man does not live who is more devoted to peace than I am,” he said. “But it may be necessary to put the foot down firmly.”

ON FEB. 21, 1961, a prominent actor will step to the front of the New Jersey Assembly hamber to reenact Lincoln’s appearance.

Ike Goes South to Hunt Quail

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower flies south today to hunt for quail in the Georgia plantation country.

Eisenhower looked forward to warmer weather than the sub-freezing temperatures he encountered last weekend at his snow-covered Gettysburg farm.

The ex-president was scheduled to board a private plane at the York, Pa., airport for the three-hour flight to Albany, Ga.

Mrs. Eisenhower, who accompanied her husband from Washington to their Gettysburg farm Friday after President Kennedy’s inauguration, remained at home.
Ernst's Record Due to Fall

Mike Rooney Should Set South Hudson Mark Tonight

By CAS RAKOWSKI

Tonight's the night when Snyder's Mike (Magnificent) Rooney is expected to become the greatest scorer in Jersey City's and South Hudson's basketball history ... The crew-cut Irishman needs 21 markers to eclipse Vinne (Mr. Biddy) Ernst's mark of 1,309 ... In 12 games this season Rooney has burned the cords for 308 points for an average of 25.7.

Rooney brilliance in Snyder's 11-2 record is the main reason why three of South Hudson's coaches rate the Tigers over St. Peter's ... Ferris' Johnny Ryan believes that "Rooney will be unstoppable against St. Peter's. They'll be too strong for the Prep."

SHARING RYAN'S talk about Mike is Bernie Ockene, who lost to both St. Peter's and Snyder ... Ockene feels that Snyder has too much balance in Rooney, Pete DeLisa, Danny DeLisa, Richie Niedzwiecki and Richie Heitner ... But

MIKE ROONEY

JIM BARRY

Bernie was quick to admit that Jim Barry and Frank Nicoletti will also be hard to stop. "It would be an even game if Rooney weren't on the court," Bernie offered.
Snyder, St. Peter's, Dickinson Keep Pace in South Hudson

Pete DeLisa Joins 1,000 Point Club

By CAS RAKOWSKI

Snyder and St. Peter's moved towards their showdown tonight but the route for each was different Saturday night.

Snyder, with a last quarter surge by Mike (Magnificent) Rooney, overcame an 11 point deficit to post a 57-52 win over Lincoln in the feature game of a doubleheader at Dickinson's gym before 810 paid fans. St. Peter's with Jim (Sensational) Barry returning to the lineup, romped to an easy 65-47 victory over Marist at Bayonne. In the opener at Dickinson Saturday night, Dickinson had rough sailing before through with a 64-63 triumph over Ferris.

Snyder had its back against the wall in the last quarter, trailing 52-44 with four minutes remaining. But Rooney took matters into his own hands by scoring 10 of Snyder's last 17 markers. The tenacious Irishman was in a class by himself when he gave the Tigers off Jerry Degnan their first lead in the game with a minute and five seconds left in the game, 53-52. The crew-cut cager then sewed up matters with a brace of fouls 40 seconds latter.

Pete DeLisa became the second player in Snyder history to tally 1,000 markers when he connected with a jumper at the start of the fourth quarter. DeLisa's 17 points gave him a career total of 1,004. Rooney paced all scorers with 30 points.

BARRY'S RETURN to the Prep lineup was overshadowed by a fine offensive game by junior Frank Nicoletti. The gangling youngster burned the cords for 21 points, high in the game. Nicoletti connected on 11 of 11 free throws and five of 12 goals.

Barry was a tower of strength for St. Peter's under the boards, in addition to blocking quite a few shots. The All-Countyite whipped in 19 points but his real value was under the boards and on defense.
TWO POINTS—St. Peter's Jim Barry goes up for a layup in the first quarter of Saturday night's St. Peter's-Marist game. On the ground is Marist's Charlie Aleksiewicz while Stan Nowicki, right, looks on. St. Peter's won, 65-47.

Tigers Slight Choice Over Prep Tonight

South Hudson scholastic supremacy will be up for grabs tonight at the Dickinson gym.

Snyder, defending division kingpins, will be a slight favorite to take over undisputed possession of first place in the Southern Division of the Hudson County Basketball League race when it meets head-on with an improving St. Peter's squad. The Tigers are tied with Dickinson, each with 4-1 records.

MIKE (MAGNIFICENT) Rooney and Jim (Sensational) Barry will be the individual stars to watch. Danny DeLisa of Snyder and Frank Nicoletti any Wayne McGurdt of St. Peter's easily could sway the game either way. Rooney is expected to break Vinnie Ernst's city and South Hudson scoring mark of 1,309. Rooney is 21 points shy of setting a new standard.

The game, which will be preceded by a junior varsity contest starting at 7, highlights a 25 game schedule this week. Last year, Snyder dropped two of three tests from St. Peter's, defeating the Prepsters by a basket in a playoff game.

Upwards to 2,000 fans are expected to view the battle. Looking on from the outside will be Dickinson which could move into the top rung if Snyder is defeated.

St. Peter's 18 15 8 22 63
Snyder 13 9 12 10 43
Sheeran Brilliant On Defense
Rooney Held As St. Peter's Coasts to Win

By CAS RAKOWSKI

Frank Nicoletti, a towering junior, and Brian Sheeran, a hawk-like defensive performer, were in a class by themselves last night at Dickinson's gym.

The two underclassmen put on a whale of a show as St. Peter's Prep wrested a 63-43 decision from Snyder before an orderly but vociferous scholastic gathering of 1,500 fans. The win put St. Peter's in a tie with Snyder in the Southern Division race with 4-2 records. Dickinson, without lifting as much as a basketball, now claims first with 4-1.

NICOLETTI put on a brilliant display of jump shooting and together with Jim Barry controlled the boards. The junior jumping jack collared 21 rebounds and contributed the game high of 20 points.

But it was Sheeran's defensive prowess that enabled St. Peter's to close up the loop standings. Sheeran, guarding Snyder's Mike Rooney, put the damper on the Tiger ace. Rooney could pump out 13 shots at the rim and connected for 18 points.

"We really were doing everything perfect out there," a jubilant Jerry Halligan exclaimed: "Our box-and-one defense on Rooney did the trick."
ST. PETER'S was strengthened by the appearance of Barry, who contributed 14 points to the win. In addition, the All-Countyite enjoyed a successful night of blocking shots.

St. Peter's started off wrong, jumping to a 11-4 advantage with Nicoletti and Barry pacing the show. Snyder came back to pull within 16-13 on six points by Rooney but that was as close as the Tigers were to come all night.

In the fourth quarter, St. Peter's nursed its 10 point advantage and with a 10 point spree nuded the margin to 55-35 behind some smart jump shooting by Sheeran and Nicoletti.

WITH ROONEY completely harassed, the Snyder offense was at a standstill. Only on a rare occasion was Snyder ever able to get off more than a single shot because the likes of Nicoletti were ever present under the hoop.

Sheeran, besides his fine defensive performance, contributed heavily to the scoring column. The plucky guard bombed the nets for 13 points, connecting on five of seven field goal attempts. The output was the highest of Sheeran's career.

THAT'S THE KIND of night it was for Halligan and his Prepsters. With Barry back in the cast there is a different attitude on the court. Everything works to perfection.
Bob Rosburg
Wins in Golf

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — Beltin' Bobby Rosburg, a middle of the pack player since his PGA crown two years ago, was golfdom's happiest pro today.

His baseball grip and hot putter earned him $5,300 in a stretch drive finish in the $50,000 Big Crosby National Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament. He carded a 72-hole score of 282 after being seven strokes off the pace in yesterday's finals.

"Improved play off the tee was the difference," said Rosburg who expertly hit low balls to avoid raging winds that swept in from the Pacific Ocean. "Everything came my way . . ."

The roly-poly former Stanford University baseball player from Palo Alto, Calif., finished with a 14-foot birdie putt on Pebble Beach's famed 18th hole to get Der Bingle's crown by one stroke from Dave Ragan, Orlando, Fla., and Roberto De Vincezo, Mexico City, each with 283.

WINNER OF the U.S. Open and the Masters last year, Palmer said his biggest disappointment in 1960 was his failure to win the British Open.

"I had a feeling I was going to win it," he said, "and when I didn't, I was tremendously disappointed."

Palmer, who won eight major tournaments last year and set a money-winning record with more than $75,000 in tournament prize money, talked for the first time about the golf game of ex-President Dwight Eisenhower, with whom he played a "command performance" round at Augusta, Ga., last April following his Masters' victory.

Only the second golfer ever to win the Hickok Belt during the 11-year history of the award, Palmer received 73 first place votes and a total of 302 points in the balloting by sports writers and broadcasters throughout the nation. Floyd Patterson, who became the first man ever to regain the heavyweight championship in 1960, was a distant second with 35 first place votes and 196 points.
Cigar Makers All Puffed Up Over Kennedy

NEW YORK (UPI) — The country’s cigar makers are hoping to get a big lift out of the new administration in Washington.

President-elect Kennedy is a cigar smoker—the first one to occupy the White House in this century.

Kennedy is not a heavy smoker. But his press secretary, Pierre Salinger, is a heavy cigar smoker.
So Few Years!

It was clear for some time that it had to be. Every newspaper reader was certain when Dr. Dooley came back to the hospital reporting the pain had returned. It would not be too long before the cancer prevailed.

Yet Thomas A. Dooley lived until one day beyond his 34th birthday. Most of the last year had been used up by his own illness. That left 33 years in which he grew up, learned medicine, served his time in the armed forces and made a world-wide reputation for himself and his methods of bringing modern medicine to poverty-stricken Southeast Asia.

He proved again that great numbers of years are not needed to make the world recognize true charity — the good work animated by complete devotion to those less fortunate.
