Prep Slates Father-Son Awards Fete

The first Hudson County showing of this year's World Series films will be shown at the annual St. Peter's father-son sports award breakfast Sunday morning following the 8 o'clock mass in the school cafeteria.

The highlights of the New York Yankee triumph over the Cincinnati Reds will be shown while Frank O'Rourke, head scout for the Yankees, looks on at the awards affair.

A HOST OF scholastic athletes will be on hand. Each St. Peter's student is invited to bring his father along as guest of the parish Holy Name Society.

Len Zdanowicz, Hudson County back of the year, St. Peter's Prep and Villanova football star Lou Rettino, who scored the winning touchdown for Villanova in the Sun Bowl against Wichita, and Bill McCarren, scout of the Red Sox, will join O'Rourke along with Hank Morganweck, former International League baseball umpire.

Irate Husband Accused

Of Shooting Wife's Guest

A Jersey City man accused of wounding his wife's visitor with a volley from a 30-gauge shotgun was due in Municipal Court today for arraignment.

The wounded man, his lower back peppered with pellets, also injured his ankles when he stopped from a third-floor window last night following the shooting.

When police arrived, they charged Justice Balls, 22, of 517 Grand St., Jersey City, with attrix assault and battery and assault with a deadly weapon.

In the Medical Center, where he was treated for back and ankles and released.

Brooks was visiting Balls' 18-year-old wife, Ruthie, at her mother's apartment, which is con-ected to the Balls' apartment by a bedroom, police said.

The three, in the presence of Mrs. Balls' parents, argued earlier in the night, police said.

In a fit of anger, Balls opened through the connecting door.

Minutes later, he reportedly broke through the door, wounding Brooks, who then jumped from the window to bail police.

Feller Best Bet to Earn Niche in Hall of Fame

By STEVE SNIDER

Bob Feller figures to make it if anyone does. He's the top candidate as veteran baseball writers cast their ballots in an effort to elect one or more worthy "old-timers" to the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y., for the first time since 1956.

Feller, Jackie Robinson and Phil Rizzuto, who retired from the majors in 1956, became eligible for election this year and they're being considered along with a flock of other stars of an earlier era who haven't yet picked up enough votes for admission.

The writers are pretty choosy — and that's as it should be. Even Joe DiMaggio wasn't elected the first time around but Feller seems to have an excellent chance of hitting in his first "at bat."

The one-time Iowa farmboy who won 26 games for the Cleveland Indians despite four seasons lost during World War II, goes on our ballot along with the highly controversial Robinson, Edgar (Sam) Rice, Hack Wilson, Burleigh Grimes, Joe Medwick, Luke Appling and Red Ruffing.

TIME IS RUNNING OUT ON...

Chrysler

This is the all-new Newport sedan feature.

Newport, for example, the full-size Chrysler, is still the one to check if you’re looking for real value.

Newport’s the car that’s helped Chrysler to a record sales success so far this 1962 model year. It will surprise people that so much car can be priced so modestly.

Newport, with full-size 123-inch wheelbase, also on a road like it costs a thousand or so more. It serves up six-passenger comfort with an interior that’s richly trimmed and fitted with typical Chrysler finess. Obviously, this is no J-car.

Newport’s beautifully engineered, torsion-bar suspension holds it flat and steady in the corners. Its big Firedon V-8 engine delivers 265 horsepower on a surprisingly small ration of regular gasoloe.

Yet, Newport’s price is pegged down where it’s still the surprise of 1962. As much a surprise as the high trade-in offer your Chrysler dealer is ready to make.

Taxes, Taxes, Taxes

This is the season of budgets and tax talk.

Most frightening is the Chamber of Commerce prediction that Jersey City’s tax rate may rise to an unprecedented level — above $120.

Most intriguing is President Kennedy’s suggestion that he be given power to reduce income taxes in times of stress.

Most likely: That in 1962 taxes will make everyone unhappy.
