Gangemi Proposes
Teachers Join City
In Salary Survey

Mayor Gangemi today recommended the formation of a 14-member teachers' welfare negotiation committee to work out a "realistic salary program with long-range goals" for Jersey City's 1,000 public school teachers.

The mayor will submit his proposal to the teachers at today's meeting of the Board of School Estimate at which the Board of Education's proposed budget is expected to be approved.

THE PROPOSED budget for the 1962-63 school year is $316,406,844 and provides for an expenditure of $342,386 over last year's budget.

Because of a decrease in state aid of $71,000 and a decrease in the surplus revenue of $80,000, the amount to be raised by taxation is $316,406,844 over last year, and accounts for $4.39 of the increase in the municipal tax rate.

The budget provides for $300,000 in salary increments to teachers who have not reached their maximum and for increases in their pension plans.

Fairmount Renovation Planned
Owner Pays 1962 Taxes

The Fairmount Hotel will be spruced up by its new owners, Peace Creators Inc. The followers of Father Divine have plans for extensive renovations—inside and out—of the block-long building on Hudson Boulevard.

"We will fix up the outside, and there is a lot of work to be done on the inside too," a spokesman at the hotel said today. But Miss Lovely Peace, the manager, was not available to explain plans for the hotel in detail.

MEANWHILE, a question of whether or not the group would claim tax exemptions because it is a religious organization was apparently cleared up when a woman arrived at the city tax collector's office yesterday with a large handbag full of money.

She handed over $2,500.79 in small bills and change to pay the hotel's taxes for the first and second quarters of 1962 in advance. It took half an hour to count the money.

The new owners are now in charge of the premises, and at least three workers were cleaning windows and doing other work.

GOP Lost in Spectacular
TV Gives Senate Comic Opera Touch

TRENTON (UP) — A half-hour magazine show piece of legislation got lost here twice yesterday. Literally.

And Senate Republicans were wishing they were Democrats. As a matter of fact, they were fighting for a seat on the Democratic side of the aisle, all in the interest of show biz.

These strange phenomena were part of a huge television spectacular, the first in the history of the legislature, which accompanied the passage of a much heralded bill to enable the Port of New York Authority to buy the bankrupt Hudson and Manhattan Railroad and build a world trade center in New York.

The confusion started shortly after 3 p.m. when the Senate turned for its usual weekly session to find its chamber converted into a TV studio. Floodlights beat down on the podium. Network movie cameras zeroed in to catch the event.

GOP senators seeking to claim their share of credit for the administration-backed bill were aghast when they discovered that the cameras were aimed straight at the backs of their heads.

Rain today virtually wiped out a surprise three-inch snowfall that fell on Hudson County.

What at first appeared to be a full-fledged snowstorm changed to rain, but not before coating Hudson roads with a layer of snow that later became slush.

HOWEVER, Bergen County kept getting snow instead of rain. County police said most roads were very hazardous. About six inches of snow was expected in Bergen.

The outlook may be even more dangerous for both counties. To-night and tomorrow, according to the Weather Bureau at Newark, predicts sub-freezing temperatures, in the teens in Hudson and possibly lower in Bergen.

A HIGH between 20 and 35 degrees is forecast for tomorrow. The snow slowed most Hudson roads, particularly Hudson Boulevard.

Boulevard and county police said trucks were salting the roads early and worked around the clock.

Golf Course for Hudson May Hinge on Park Bill

Hudson County might get a golf course if a measure transferring the power of appointment to the county Park Commission to the Board of Freeholders is passed. At present such power is held by the courts.

The bill was passed yesterday by the Assembly, 39-5, and awaits Senate action.

THE SUPREME Court had proposed that Superior Court assignment judges be relieved of the responsibility of making the appointments or, if they are to continue making them, the judges be freed from political pressures over who should get the posts. Hudson recreation experts and golf enthusiasts have advocated a public course in Hudson as a recreation project for some time, but have been getting nowhere with the county park commission.

Some backers of the plan to establish a public golf course at Lincoln Park feel the park commissioners would be more responsive to public opinion if they were accountable to the elected freeholders.

LAST SUMMER the Hudson County Council of Social Agencies reported great interest in the project. Bergen, Essex and Union Counties have public golf courses.

The survey showed that about 12,000 to 15,000 Hudson residents were playing outside the county during the summer months. It has been estimated 61,000 rounds of golf would be played the first year if a public course was opened in Hudson.

The park commissioners have said they need the land for “recreation purposes.” The backers of the course say that golf is recreation.
Bees Upset By Lincoln; Prep Cops It's All Over In S. Hudson

By CAS RAKOWSKI

Everybody shook hands with Lincoln coach John Ryan . . . even the St. Peter's Prep players.

There was joy at Dickinson High School gymnasium last night. St. Peter's clinched the South Hudson championship when Lincoln lambasted Bayonne, 68-54.

THE LINCOLN win was especially sweet since it marked the first time in the school's history that the Lions had defeated Bayonne twice in a single season. Only last month the Lions posted their first triumph over Bayonne in 28 years and last night they did it again and they did it impressively.

By virtue of its win, Lincoln knocked Bayonne out of the South Hudson basketball picture and St. Peter's, a 71-65 victory over Ferris in the opening game, was the South Hudson titlist for the fifth time in seven seasons under coach Jerry Halligan.

Bayonne Obliges . . . St. Peter's Captures Divisional Crown

Winner of 10 straight league games and 12 in a row, St. Peter's has two county tiffs left while Bayonne with a 7-3 mark has two.

Dickinson, in fourth place in the league behind Lincoln, strengthened its position with a 56-48 win over Marist at the St. Andrew's gym, Bayonne.

WILLIE WILLIS of Lincoln and Tom Murtagh of St. Peter's were the individual standouts for their teams with Roger Bauer with 25 points again excelling for Dickinson.

Willis, a tower of strength under the boards, led the victorious Lions in scoring and rebounding. The slender 6-foot-1 sophomore dominated the boards and corralled 25 rebounds while netting 20 points to capture game scoring laurels.

Lincoln started out strong and pulled ahead 17-14 at the end of the first quarter, thanks to the play of Harry Laurie and Willis, who combined for 15 of the points.

Murtagh, a replacement for Brian Sheeran in the Prep starting cast, powered the Prep attack with 22 points as St. Peter's upped its season ledger to 16-1 and remained undefeated in regular season competition.

ANOTHER PREP reserve, Bob Ryan, who replaced Stu McGregor, bedded with the flu, played an important role along with Frank Nicoletti. Ryan converted six of 13 goal attempts while Nicoletti contributed 16 points to the attack while starring in the rebounding department.

St. Peter's Alumni to Greet Class

The Alumni Association of St. Peter's College, Jersey City, will welcome students of the Class of 1962 as new members during its annual Senior Night next Wednesday at Dineen Hall.

The alumni group will present its Recognition Award to the senior who has been most outstanding scholastically and in leadership qualities.

Edwin Rauscher of 100 Columbus Dr., Tenafly, is chairman of the event. He said provision has been for the seniors to consult experienced alumni about employment opportunities in many fields.
Maybe the Answer
Is Not Barracks

No one would seriously suggest that Jersey City subsidize slums.

Yet this is what is happening at Marion Gardens and other low-rent public housing projects in the city and indeed in the nation.

Marion Gardens is back in the news because a group of Negro tenants has demanded that the Housing Authority desegregate the projects. Ninety per cent of its tenants are Negro.

It was in the news last summer when a feud between project residents and others in the Marion section came close to mushrooming into a riot.

WHAT IS WRONG with Marion Gardens? Just about everything.

Designed to provide a decent place for people to live, Marion Gardens is no better than some of the slums Jersey City has already demolished.
