

St. Peter's Prep football clinches first State title berth since 2009, in 34-0 victory over St. Augustine

St. Peter's Kolton Huber runs past St. Augustine's William Bailey and Raymond D'Amico during the second half of the St. Peter's Prep vs St. Augustine NJSIAA Playoffs Round 1 on November 22, 2013 at Cochrane Field in Jersey City. St. Peter's won the game 34-0. Molly J. Smith/The Jersey Journal

By Brandon Gould/The Jersey Journal

on November 22, 2013 at 10:22 PM

After a three-year hiatus, the St. Peter's Prep football team will return to the State championship stage after tonight's 34-0 win over St. Augustine Prep in the NJSIAA Non-Public, Group 4 semifinals at Caven Point.

The Marauders (10-1), ranked in No. 6 in the Star-Ledger Top 20, will face the winner of tomorrow's game between Paramus Catholic and Don Bosco in what will be the Jersey City school's first title game appearance since 2009. The State final is set for Dec. 6 at MetLife Stadium.